The Kaiser's Amazing Sermon.
Next morning he appeared fresh and active, and apparently quite normal. But that evening at sunset he ordered the officials, suite officers, and crew to assemble on deck and then, appearing in clerical garb, he preached a most marvelous and amazing sermon. "I am God's instrument," he cried. "He has sent me to husheth the sword against the world, to lead on to the armies of our empire to victory and to world-power! In me," he cried, "you see the one sent unto you as a deliverer! — the all-highest upon this earth — your kaiser!" He raised his arm toward the sun and shouted, "The enemies of Germany shall wither as grass before the fire. I am your emperor, your deliverer. I am your master!" Next morning, at Von Wedell's instigation, the captain swore the whole crew, the officers, and the old Norwegian pilot to secrecy, but the old Norwegian pilot a month later, indiscreet when he was of the deck and
